TO-DAY'S GAMES. Toledo at Wheeling.

Columbus at Youngstown.

Fort Wayne at Dayton.

Manafield at New Castle.

The first home game of the Wheeling hall club under the new management, was played at the Island park yesterday afternoon, and it resulted in a nice victory over the strong Toledes. The Stogles played an errorless game and were full of the proper snap and gin-Bates was on the slab and covered himself with glory. His work in the box and at the bat was of the kind to gladden the hearts of the rooters. He was in superb form, playing the game of his life. Four hits was the portion of the visitors and these were scattered through as many ionings.

Bates was well backed up. Besides playing an errorless game in the field they slugged Butler for sixteen hits, but were not all timed to advantage. The two errors made by Toledo were costly and were responsible for three tallies, at least. Until the seventh ining the result was in doubt; after that it was easy money. Wheeling scored in the first, Meaney, the first man up, as was expected, made a hit. Congaiton sacrificed, and on Beck's error, Patrick Meaney crossed the plate. Wheeling was good for a hit in every inning, but did not connect with the home base again until the sevetnh, when Congalton singled, Lyons was hit by pitcher, and on Turner's long hit to the right field fence, the bases were Then Bill Taylor cracked out a stiff grounder along the third base lit scoring the three men that preceded him and he came in on an out to centre. The Toledos raised a kick on Taylor's hit claiming it was a foul, but it was well within the foul line and Carnthers was

In the last inning, Turner and Taylor, who both singled, were advanced on Pe-quinney's sacrifice, and scored on Griffin's failure to handle Rothermel's grounder and his wild throw to "Tuck" Turner, Toledo's first baseman.

The visitors got their only run in the third inning. Butler was passed by Bates and he was sent around the circuit on Kane's three-baggger. In every other inning they were almost retired -two-three order. Score:

Wellsburg Beats Bridgeport.

In a hotly contested game at Wells-burg yesterday, Bridgeport was defeated by Wellsburg to the tune of 5 to 3. The game was a fast article of ball and the home team won by putting up a superior brand. Of a sensational order were the running catches of McConnell, of Bridgeport, and Sapp, of Wellsburg, and the one-hand pick-up by Whissen for the visitors. The score by innings was as follows:

Bridgeport ...0 1 0 0 1 1 0 0 0-3 6 f Wellsburg ...0 2 1 0 0 0 2 0 *-5 12 3 BASE BALL COMMENT.

Bates pitched the best game yester day that he has figured in for Wheeling this season and it put to rest the clamor that his release was almost a certainty He is one of the highest salaried men on the team and he earned his money yes terday. The fans forced him to doff his cap several times. He was there with the stick, too.

Backstop Boyd said after the game that Bates hadn't tossed a dozen curves in the game, depending on straight one that had speed to burn.

Hereafter the Monday games start at 3:45 p. m., the others at 2:30, as usual. This announcement was made yesterday by Cleero Copeland, ha of the ruldy checks and melodious voice.

CYCLING.

President Sams, of the League of American Wheelmen, is very much pleased with the action of the Republian convention in inserting a good roads plank in the platform. He says:
"The placing of this plank in the plat form is the second act in a carefully prepared plan to nationalize the good roads movement. The first was the introduction in the last Congress of a bill appropriating $5,000,000 for highway improvement. The third will be the adop-tion of a good roads plank by the Democratic convention, in which we fully expect the same success as we have had at Philadelphia.

"The Republican plank says: 'Public movements looking to a permanent improvement of the roads and highways of the country meet with our cordial approval, and we recommend this subject to the earnest consideration of the peo-ple and of the legislatures of the several states.' You will notice that the plank does not refer to national legislation. The reason for this is that there existed a doubt in the minds of some of the delegates us to whether action by Congress would be constitutional. On that point we have no fears, and now have constitutional lawyers investigating the subject, and when their labors are finished they will draw a bill which will with stand any criticism

"When that bill is drawn and present ed to Congress we will expect the repre-sentatives of the two great parties to fulfill the implied promises of their plat-forms, and we have no doubt they will do it, though we have had enough experience in passing laws in the interests of eyeling to understand that some o the legislators do not think party platforms bind them individually. ever, we will take care of that feature

"Our highway improvement commit tee, which is to be credited with securing the Republican plank, has been working most assiduously for two months on these resolutions, and as soon as its labors in the Democratic convention are completed will begin the work on other features of our good roads programme. With the two nawill againt our state divisions to secure good roads planks in the state plat-forms of all the parties. With the national platforms as a direction for the state conventions we do not anticipate unusual trouble in accomplishing this "In the meantime, and after the state conventions are held, it is our purpose to put all the strength of the L. A. W. into a campaign for national and state appropriations for highway improvement. We will cordially invite the auto mobilists to join us in the movement and the agricultural organizations are firmly with us. The farmers now almost generally recognize the fact that good roads are a positive necessity to their welfare, and though many them were opposed to us some year ago they are now our best friends. This is due principally to the good roads campaign we have carried on for twen ty years, but not a little of it can be attributed to the fact that thousands of farmers in all sections of the country are now wheelmen. "We believe we are getting the good roads movement upon a sound, busi-nesslike basis, and we are meeting with approval and support from the highest officials in the country. We are well quipped to carry on the movement, and under our present efficient highway improvement committee expect to secure more practical results this year than we ever have heretofore."

BOXING.

Oscar Gardner began training yester-day for his match with Jack McClel-land next Monday night, at Millvale, a suburb of Pittsburgh. The articles were returned to Wheeling yesterday, and the twenty-round provision was satisfactory. Patey Gavin, of this city, is to be the referee. It will be quite a betting event.

The manager of Eddle Kennedy, the Pittsburgh welterweight, has asked the Metropolitan club to get on a match for Kennedy with some good man, and the club hopes to get Rube Ferms as his opponent.

The bout between Buzz Auber, of Wheeling, and George Tucker, of this place, scheduled to be pulled off at Finleyville next Saturday night, has been declared off, says the Washingbeen declared off, says the washing-ton, Pa., Observer. Auber has a more important contest on with a well known young man at Youngstown, O., and he asked Tucker to cancel his en-gagement with him. Tucker gave his consent, but it is likely the bout will be fought at some later date.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

of Belmont County.

It is pretty accurately settled now, it seems, that an additional coal works will be opened up south of this city on the river front and that a new area of coal will be opened up. The improvements made to the plants already there and the larger business being done by them, with the prospects of this additional plant indicates that this section is to become a great coal feeder, and this industry to grow into more importance to this community. This, taken in connection, with some other projects not yet ripe enough to exploit, leads to the conclusion that a new era for Bellaire is dawning and that the next year or two will witness important developments hereabouts.
